Dear Bruce

A stronger voice for Wales: engaging with Westminster and the devolved institutions

I am writing as Chair of the National Assembly for Wales's Constitutional and Legislative Affairs Committee.

You may be aware that the Committee is currently undertaking an inquiry into inter-institutional working.

The Committee has set the following inquiry objectives:

- To produce best practice principles for inter-institutional working for constitutional legislation;
- To reflect and build on the work of other legislatures on inter-institutional working as it relates to broader policy areas;
- To seek, establish and promote opportunities for inter-parliamentary working, including promotion of citizen engagement.

The inquiry was launched in December 2016 along with a public consultation, which closes on 5 June 2017. Further information about the inquiry is available on our webpages.

We are interested to hear your views on inter-parliamentary working and your experience of building and maintaining relations in the UK.

Alternatively, we would be happy to discuss these issues either through an informal visit or via video-conference. If you would like to meet on this basis, please contact the
