I believe the handling of outdoor tennis in Wales has been an absolute farce!

A report in America has actually placed tennis safer than walking, running and golf!

The Welsh government has been incredibly stubborn without good reason or cause. How one can open garden centres, announce schools returning, announce face coverings aren't essential for public transport, all while banning outdoor tennis is quite frankly laughable.

The physical and mental health benefits from tennis are enormous.

I implore you to make things right in the next announcement.

Announcements should be made daily.

Regards,

John Archer.
