At/To Aled Roberts:

During Assembly Questions on 1 February 2012, you raised concern about not being able to obtain a copy of Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board's action plan to address patient nutrition. In particular, you queried why only 42% of hospital patients were weighed on admission, and none were asked about their normal dietary intake.

The Chief Nursing Officer will raise this issue at her next meeting will Jill Galvani, Executive Nurse Director, and I will update you on the findings in due course.
