Dear Jocelyn

At its meeting on 18 October, the Children and Young Committee undertook training on Children's Human Rights, delivered by the Wales Observatory on Human Rights of Children and Young People and the Wales UNCRC Monitoring Group.

The aim of the session was to examine the duties imposed on Welsh Ministers under the Rights of Children and Young Persons (Wales) Measure 2011, identify how they can be held accountable for fulfilling those duties, and the role of Assembly Committees in connection with the Measure.

Members found the training extremely useful and also noted its importance and relevance to other Committees. I am therefore writing to commend this training to you and members of the Finance Committee. If you would like any further details about the course or would be interested in holding a similar session, Carys Eyton Evans, Head of Member Liaison and Professional Development, would be happy to help.

Yours sincerely
